Fall, 1999

Dear Friends,

The General Assembly met for an extended Organization Day in mid-November.

The 2000 session is a "short" session, meaning we will begin session January 10 and finish before March 15.

In the short session, each House member may introduce only five pieces of legislation. While we will not re-open the two-year state budget passed earlier this year, the possibility remains that we may fine-tune some of the appropriations outlined in that legislation.

Inside this newsletter is my legislative questionnaire. The questions will provide some details about the topics that may be brought before the legislature. Your opinion is valuable to me as I consider how I will vote.

If you have any concerns or suggestions for change in your state government, please contact me at 1-800-382-9842.

Sincerely,

2000 Page Program

Serving as a page during the 2000 session allows any child age 13 or older the opportunity to gain a firsthand glimpse of how the legislative system works. Students will be excused from school on the day they are serving as a page and will spend the entire day at the Statehouse.

Interested students should send me their name, parent or guardian's name, address, phone number, school and two different dates when the student could come to the Statehouse between January 10 and February 29, 2000.

Please remember session is short and places fill up fast, so apply as soon as possible.

Our mission is to create an environment for Indiana's youth that is conducive to both fun and learning, and which will stimulate student interest in government and community involvement. To that end, we plan to educate students regarding legislative processes; to give students an opportunity to meet their community leaders; to encourage student involvement in the community; and to introduce students to other students around the state.

Reassessment -- how will it affect you?

Last December the State Supreme Court ruled that the property assessment guidelines used in the collection of property taxes were unconstitutional because different types of property were not treated equitably. The Court mandated the State Tax Board to develop new guidelines based on "objectively verifiable data."

I supported a bill to delay the reassessment. This would have allowed the board time to work out a good program. This also would have given the legislature time to review the guidelines and ease the shift to reassessment.

The reassessment will not increase the money generated by property taxes; it merely shifts the burden among taxpayers. While one taxpayer may see an increase, another taxpayer will have a decrease. I will do everything I can to ease the burden for homeowners.

The new assessment guidelines mandated by the Indiana Supreme Court will affect property tax bills starting in 2002.

I am working to find alternative approaches which will ease the burden for homeowners. The State Tax Board has discussed several options, including phasing in the property tax increases rather than raising them all at once. Again, I intend to do all I can to lower the property tax burden for homeowners.

Educating our children

Did you know that more than 20 percent of adults read at or below a fifth grade level? This is far below the level needed to earn a living wage. Forty-three percent of people with the lowest literacy skills live in poverty. An inability to read has been linked to a multitude of social problems, including crime and teen pregnancy.

The Indiana General Assembly has attempted to help by appropriating $3.9 million in funding for early intervention (K-3) reading programs. The General Assembly also provided $6 million to replace old and worn school library books and materials.

If you know of people who would like to obtain a GED, need reading help for their child, need reading help for themselves, want to learn English as a Second Language, want to improve their employment options or who want to go from welfare to work, then contact the Literacy Helpline at 1-800-267-9029. The helpline is part of the Indiana Literacy Foundation. The Indiana Literacy Foundation sponsors statewide programs to encourage people to read. Reach Out and Read (ROAR) is a pediatric literacy initiative to help infants and children between the ages of 6 months and 5 years discover the joys of reading. Developed by pediatricians at Boston Medical Center, ROAR recruits volunteers to conduct reading circles at health facilities. Doctors "prescribe" reading to their young patients, each of whom receives a brand new book after each visit.
